

Parris

- Let you strike out against the Devil, and the village will bless you for it! (Putnam says this to Parris - Parris can either try to cover up for Abigail or he can declare witchcraft and try to "save" the community).

- They will howl me out of Salem for such corruption in my house.

- Your name in the town - it is entirely white, is it not? (To Abigail, after discovering the girls and before facing the community - Act One)

- I cannot offer one proposition but there be a howling riot of argument. I have often wondered if the Devil be in it somewhere;

- I am not used to this poverty - trying to imply that the community are unmindful of their religious obligations because they do not pay him as much money as he thinks he deserves

- There is either obedience or the church will burn like Hell is burning

- I hope you do not mean we go to Satan here! To Rebecca Nurse when she leaves. He is annoyed that she will not stay to witness Hale's investigation - he takes it as disapproval.

- Beware this man, Your Excellency, this man is mischief.
Talking about Proctor, to Danforth. Act Three.

- The man has a mad look these days (Hathorne Act 4)
